Spring Staff

Prerequisites:

The successful candidates must have the ability to function successfully in a fast-paced, multitasking, and high-learning environment. They must demonstrate the ability to facilitate activities which engage guests relationally, creatively and effectively, while demonstrating the ability to work in a team context. Current Standard First Aid and CPR "C", wilderness first aid certification, NLS certifications, ORCKA certifications and Challenge Course Facilitator Certifications will all be seen as assets. Preference will be given to individuals considering summer camping positions. Training will be provided.

Overview:

Camp IAWAH seeks Spring Staff to serve in its spring Retreating and School group season. These positions are ideal for postsecondary students interested in serving in a Christian context while gaining experience and skills in the outdoor recreation field. Under the direction of the Spring Team Coordinator, the successful candidates will be able to effectively engage and relate with retreat guests (early spring), and successfully manage and engage students during our school group season (late spring) in a recreational setting, creatively teach new skills and activities, and facilitate activity based small group learning.

Expectations:

1. Serve guest groups by welcoming guests, organizing logistics, acting as MCs for meals, implement and troubleshoot schedules, housekeeping duties.
2. Preparing and serving food, doing dishes, and general housekeeping.
3. Be open and flexible to participate in each spring team role as required. This will also include facility work on property to help prepare the site for the summer.
4. Join in weekly cleaning and preparation of buildings and facilities.
5. Facilitate school group experiences through leadership and teaching activities.

In addition to the above expectations, the successful candidate will contribute positively to an environment where we seek to encourage, build up and humbly challenge one another to continually grow. As a leader, they will demonstrate discernment and maturity helping to perpetuate safety, efficiency and fun as we strive to create a place for campers as well as staff from many different walks of life to be able to open up and experience freedom in a life with Christ.

All staff are required to sign IAWAH's Statement of Faith, Lifestyle Agreement and Commitment to team.
